

Elizabeth Davison
Member At-Large

Elizabeth Davison has worked in the planning and real estate profession for over 40 years. She started her career as a research coordinator at the Montgomery County Park and Planning Commission. She was a Vice President at the Real Estate Research Corporation for almost nine years and then spent three years as Vice President at Hammer Siler George and Associates, both of which are real estate research organizations. Elizabeth was the Director of the Montgomery County, MD Department of Housing and Community Affairs for 11 years. She was then a Project Manager with RES Advisors from 2009-2012. Elizabeth has also been an Adjunct Professor at the Catholic University School of Architecture and Planning from 2008 to 2012.

Elizabeth holds a BA in Economics from the George Washington University. She is an accomplished art quilter.