

Lisa Rother
Manager/Member-at-Large

Lisa is a city planner by training and has worked in local government and for a nonprofit membership organization for the real estate development community. She was a planner for the City of Rockville for almost 15 years in the 1980s and 1990s, and worked for the Montgomery County Executive Office for five years after her stint in the City of Rockville. In 2007, Lisa became the Executive Director of ULI Washington, the local district council of the Urban Land Institute. ULI is an organization that provides leadership in the responsible use of land and does leadership training and education for its multidisciplinary membership of all sectors related to land use and real estate development.

Lisa retired from her professional career in 2019 and currently manages the LAIGW chapter of Lambda Alpha International. She currently is the Vice-Chair of the Board of MHP, a nonprofit affordable housing provider, and is a member of the Temple Emanuel Endowment Board in Kensington, MD.
